the Lenten Fair on a rainy Saturday and suddenly there were clowns by the dozens. Top left - a face being transformed into the colors and familiar lines of the circus classic. Top right - A wet curve leaves a contrail as the sponge spares its target - the brave little girl in the center of the target. Bottom left - the "Cookie Monster" (Mahlon Peterson) poses with a young admirer. Bottom right, "Big Bird" (John Pagenkopf) is the center of attention. The Fair, sponsored by the Congregational Church School, was a huge success. Throngs of children enjoyed it hugely and went home tired and happy.

'Sweet Charity'

A bright and rapid paced musical show delighted the audience on the Old Rochester stage as the students presented "Sweet Charity". Marianne Marso, as Charity, was excellent. She played the part of the love starved dance hall girl with just the right tongue in cheek, feather-brained humor. Her big moments were "If My Friends Could See me Now" solo done with top hat and cane and a very beautifully paced comic dialog in the elevator with Jamie Bradley playing Oscar. He played the object #2 of Charity's affections and they teamed in "In the Bravest Individual" as part of the stuck elevator scene which was the comic hit of the show. The show is a colorful bit of nonsense stringing some bright pearls of spectacle on a hair thin story line. It gave the maximum opportunity to show off the entire cast to good advantage. Ann Graham and Sara Woodcock had several opportunities to shine in their dance hall hostess roles. They were outstanding in "Big Spender", "There's Gotta Be Something Better Than This", and "Baby Dream Your Dream". A kaleidoscope of scene changes was cleverly mounted in an abstract way by Janel Gaucher and this fast change artistry zipped the pace of the show. Herman, the dance hall impresario, was played by Uwe Meixner who performed with great humor and spectacular treat which resulted. "I'm a Brass Band", performed by Charity and all the cast was the clanging high point of the show. In a tiny part Karen Silsby was a whacky, sweet, good fairy, and Harlene Fearing and Laura McLaughlin were very believable in their tired dance hall girl roles.

Once again Nancylee S. Gaucher, as director-choreographer, has done a superb job in bringing together all the pieces into a highly entertaining whole. In this effort, she shares great credit with Gary E. Thomas who adds so much to the performance with the music of his orchestra. The music was particularly important in this show and was well performed with excellent timing and background to the cast.

In all categories the show will be remembered as the speedy bit of fun it was.

Playing the part of the Fandango girls were Mary Ellen Connor, Mary Kate Worden, Kathy Cain, Alison Anselmo, Lynn Bucar, Martha Dawson, Donna Layport, Jenny Randall, Kristen McCormack and Cheryl Tavares. Pompeii boys were Arthur Blackburn, Chris Gaucher, Ben Dunn, Brian Barry, Mark Roberts and Mahlon Peterson.

Chorus and extras were: Agnes Brennan, Maggie Francis, Maureen Andrews, Judy

Open Letter

The Special Town Meeting held on March 28, 1974, to consider an addition to Old Hammondton School, represented democracy in its purest form. Young adults attending their first Town Meeting had an opportunity to listen to, and in some cases, express their own viewpoints. Unfortunately, some of these young adults were dismayed by the manner in which viewpoints were expressed, and the validity behind them.

We would like to set certain facts clear to those townspeople who attended the meeting. While we respect the right of an individual to express his opinion, it should be stated as such, and not made to sound as if it were factual. There were too many generalities thrown around with obviously very little homework behind them. A statement was made on the floor and we quote,
"I spoke to the teachers at Old Hammondton and they told me they had no space problem in their classrooms." We would like to state publicly, that no teacher at Old Hammondton was approached or expressed any such viewpoint. A comment regarding students using only certain areas of the classroom and leaving empty spaces, needs to be examined. If one were to take the time to find out the educational value of grouping students in different areas of the room at given times, they might be surprised. There is no empty classroom space at Old Hammondtown.

Classroom space and numbers are not the only issues to be considered. Educational quality is starting to have a serious lag in our elementary schools. We are not asking for what many of our neighboring towns have added to their elementary schools, such as a swimming pool in Middleboro, full size gym and locker facilities in Marion and classroom space to grow into. We are asking for basics: a library, resource center, art room, music room, physical education area, special services area, particularly in light of Chapter 766, and enough classroom space to provide for the individual needs of children. Is this asking too much? We don't think so, because children are our business and they are the losers.

TO THE PEOPLE OF MATTAPOISETT:

I am a taxpayer of this great town of Mattapoissett and proud to say so. I have 4 children going to school in town and I voted NO for the new school for the simple reason it's about time someone did something to help the average taxpayer instead of trying to put us deeper in debt.

I was glad to see people being able to get up and express their feelings for or against the article.

I understand this article is going to be brought up again in the near future. I hope not. What are they trying to do, jam it down our throats. We let them know Thursday how we felt and I think the issue should be dropped until we can solve the problem of getting something in town to help us with our taxes. At the rate we're going I'll have to sell my home and move into one of our nice schools.

I do think all the Selectmen are fine and can do the town of Mattapoissett a lot of good but they have to remember one thing, they are serving the people and not the people serving them.

William A. Calise

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Once again we are faced with the attempt of a small minority to circumvent the Zoning Law in a way which is certainly not in the best interests of the Town as a whole and particularly of North Street residents.

Article 3 of the proposed Zoning Law changes is specifically referred to. This was soundly defeated before, and with good reason.

The following article (published in the Presto Press of January 26, 1972), as well as several others, including an editorial by Mr. Donald Jason, expresses principles which are, if anything, more important today than ever.

Article 3 of the proposed changes is re-

that interested citizens make themselves

PROPOSED ZONING CHANGES 1/21/72

I would like to comment with appreciation on your editorial of January 12, not only as a North Street resident but as an original member of the Zoning Committee (later the Zoning Board) responsible for drawing up the existing Zoning Law which was accepted by the Town by a substantial margin. Please bear in mind that several Town businessmen conducting business in Mattapoisett were on this board.

I thoroughly agree with your point of view that attempting to change the present R20 residential district at North Street and Route 195 is a disservice not only to North Street residents but to the Town as a whole.

I would like to remind the residents of the Town that the proposed zoning prior to our Committee was defeated by the Town by a substantial margin and one reason was an attempt at that time to put a business zone
at or near this new attempt on North Street.
This was then and still is completely illogical and was so determined at the time our Zoning Committee started to draw up the present Zoning Law.

Although I am interested as a resident of North Street I am also sure that everyone

It was Benjamin Franklin who coined the phrase "time is money." And in Poor Richard's Almanac, he wrote: "Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that's the stuff life is made of."

How do you value your own time?

If you figure out how much of your time is "wasted" during a day or a week, you can check the approximate dollar cost to you from the following table:

Yearly Earnings	Cost Each Hour	Cost Each Minute
$ 7,500	$ 3.75	6 cents
$10,000	$ 5.00	8 cents
$15,000	$ 7.50	13 cents
$20,000	$10.25	17 cents
$30,000	$15.25	25 cents

who was aware of the purpose of our Zoning Board must agree that the Board as a whole had the best interests of the Town in mind constantly and we worked many long hours together to this end. We all wanted to maintain the beauty and livability of the Town of Mattapoisett without penalizing the existing or logically planned future business interests.

I call on all right minded citizens of Mattapoisett who want to keep Mattapoisett a good place to live to defeat this or any similar attempt to circumvent the ideas and ideals of the existing zoning law. We don't want to see Mattapoisett deteriorate in the same way we have seen other towns.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I have been eager to learn how democracy works in a small town as compared to its unknown quantity in a big city. The library meeting last March 13th gave me my first grass roots experience. This meeting called at short notice by one woman was attended late into the evening by 100 or so people - young people as well as men. They wanted to know why changes had been made at their library sometime ago without public knowledge. I asked a friend when would the trustees tell us their side of all this. She said, although they had been asked, they were not there. The Selectmen did not attend either. But the 2 librarians talked to us most reservedly. Although one could sense disappointment, there was no discouragement, for another meeting was decided on. One could feel tension, yet the moderator did not have to moderate once. The grass root people of Mattapoisett were working out their own common cause. Mattapoisett suddenly seemed an oasis com-

Mattapoissett Seniors

RED CARPET FOR MATTAPOISETT AND AREA SENIOR CITIZENS was out in Washington D.C. when they arrived at the luxurious Washington Hilton (Washington's official palace), for the Cherry Blossom Festival. There was heavy security as it was the radio and television correspondents' association dinner. In the lobby were approximately 900 executives as well as Capitol officials, their wives and friends, standing around or on the way to the ballroom.

The first to greet us was Senator Edward Brooke. He was cordial and seemed very impressive. Then, as the group waited for their room keys, Senator Edward Ken-nedly smiled and spoke to Gloria Rounds. As she acknowledged his greeting and he started for the ballroom, Gloria said "Ted Kennedy, these people are all from Massachusetts". He pivoted, then grinned from ear to ear as he warmly shook hands with one and all and extended them an invitation to visit with him the next day. Imagine the wonderful beginning of the Washington visit to be greeted by both of the United Senators from this State, not as politicians but as gracious gentlemen welcoming visitors from their home state to the Capitol.

Tex, the bus driver, and "Rare" Rose (DeOrio) as a guide, were without compare. With Rose's kind, tender, loving care, the visit and seeing the Nation's Capital began immediately, seeing it by night and day. Everything on the itinerary was covered. Unfortunately, Friday evening previous to the National Cherry Blossom parade it rained and all the day of the parade. The grandstand seat tickets in our hands we brought home as souvenirs. The parade was not canceled, so rather than sit on wet seats in the rain, some reviewed the parade from inside a building.

But, Rose, as a guardian angel and fairy godmother, waved her magic wand, said a few words to the handsome coachmen and away we went to more interesting places.

The rain was a blessing in disguise. The five hours that would have been taken was put to marvelous use. One jump ahead of all the bus loads from all over the country, we were there first. From Rose's bag which seemed full of magic tricks, out came tickets and plans. We got red carpet treatment. The food was unlimited, three meals a day. The last day was climaxed by dinner in the East Room of Holgates on the Potomac River, very luxurious and nautical, more sightseeing, then to a beautiful immaculate shrine and dinner.

The trip to the National Capitol will remain forever in memories, even to have the Senate in session when we went.

Through the skillful planning and co-ordinators of the tour company it all became one large happy family. The Hope Diamond was beautiful and costly, but our Rose was a priceless treasurer. She a priceless treasure. She brought joy, happiness and love to all on this eventful trip.

We all hope for another Capitol visit. This is the Capitol of our Country.

'Music for an April Evening'

SIPPICAN CHORAL SOCIETY IN CONCERT

Those lilting melodies from "Brigadoon", like "Heather on the Hill", "Come to Me, Bend to Me," and "Almost Like Being in Love" will waft through Hoyt Hall at Tabor Academy Friday, April 26, when the Sippican Choral Society presents a program of "Music for an April Evening" that is open to the public.

A highlight of the evening will be a group of selections by a newly formed Recorder group whose members are Mrs. Florence Kilpatrick, Mrs. Alan Hetzeck, Theodore Babbitt and Leo Peduzzi. They also will accompany a group of Madrigal singers.

Tickets for "Music for an April Evening" are available in Mattapoisett from Mrs. Kilpatrick, Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Charles Smith, John Atkinson and Charles W. Ganzel, Jr.

BIRTHRIGHT OF NEW BEDFORD COMES TO ST. PATRICK'S, WAREHAM

Some concerned citizens for life of Marion and Wareham have extended invitations to many clubs and organizations to be present at a meeting to be held at St. Patrick's Hall, Wareham, on April 15 at 8 P.M. The public is invited - men, women and young adults.

BIRTHRIGHT of New Bedford, represented by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Baker, will explain the aims of the service with film - and an answer period will follow with Mrs. Albert Loranger, President.

Birthright is a non-profit, non-sectarian, and non-political agency of service which is part of an international organization offering free emergency service to pregnant women. It serves every need of the woman who elects to continue her pregnancy, including emotional, medical, legal, financial and social assistance.

The activities of BIRTHRIGHT cannot help but foster in the community an increased awareness of the dignity of human life, of parenthood, and of the family. Their New Bedford telephone number is 996-6744.

Mrs. Robert P. Demeo at St. Rita's is chairman of the Marion committee, assisted by Mrs. Bartlett Cushing, Mrs. James Hughes, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. C. Joseph Nowak, Mrs. Charles Parsons and Mrs. Harry Schmitt.

Mrs. Robert F. Cooney at St. Patrick's is chairman of the Wareham Committee, assisted by Mrs. Thomas Bohan, Mrs. Michael Galavotti, Mrs. Dennis Mattos and Mrs. Joseph Moore.

Refreshments will be served.

Storage Space?

The Mattapoisett District Nurses Advisory Board needs help in locating a storage space for medical equipment.

What is needed is a room, corner of a barn or a garage, with a space about 8 feet by 10 feet, that is easy to reach.

The District Nurses have such equipment as hospital beds, wheel chairs, walkers, crutches, a lift, trapeze, etc. that they loan to townspeople free of charge. At this time equipment is stored in many parts of town making it very inconvenient.

If you have such a space or know of one that could be used by the nurses, please contact Mrs. Margaret Sylvester at 758-3802, evenings.

Campaign Reforms Urged*LEAGUE LAUNCHES PETITION DRIVE

The League of Women Voters of the Marion Area is launching a petition drive in support of comprehensive campaign financing reform in 1974. The goal of the drive is a minimum of 800 signatures of Marion and Mattapoisett citizens of voting age.

"The people want reform -- tough and far-reaching legislation that will combat corruption and restore confidence in elected officials. But they may not get it unless there is a genuine outpouring of grassroots opinion to counter stalling tactics and strategies already underway in Congress. Citizens must speak now, and this petition drive gives them a way to do it," said Mrs. LaVerne Wallace, president of the Marion Area League.

The petition calls for a comprehensive campaign financing law, including provisions for combined public and private financing of all federal elections, limits on contributions and expenditures, and full disclosure and enforcement. These provisions are included in S. 3044, which is now before the U. S. Senate.

O.R. Musician Chosen*ORR STUDENT RECEIVES HONOR

Melanie Wolak, of 498 Mill Street, Marion, recently received the honor of First Flutist in the All-State Concert Orchestra. The award for Melanie was made extra special because as a Freshman this was her first audition in an All-State competition. Melanie is a student of Miss Sandra Delling at the Cape Cod Conservatory of Music in Barnstable and is also a member of the New Bedford Symphony Orchestra. Although this is a big "First" for her, Melanie won a chair with the All-District Concert Band for Southeastern Massachusetts high school students in January. Selections for All-State were made in February. The concert, held in Hyannis on March 30th, was preceded by three days of rehearsal and a concert on the 29th also. Participants will be going on a trip to San Francisco as guests of the Massachusetts
